Household or Family is defined as a group of related or unrelated individuals who are living as one economic unit.

USDA Nondiscriminatory Policy

In accordance with federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity. Program information may be made available in languages other than English. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication to obtain program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotope, American Sign Language), should contact the responsible state or local agency that administers the program or USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TTY) or contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. To file a program discrimination complaint, a Complainant should complete a Form AD-3027, USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form which can be obtained online at: <https://www.usda.gov/sites/default/files/documents/USDA-OASCR%20P-Complaint-Form-0508-0002-508-11-28-17Fax2Mail.pdf>, from any USDA office, by calling (866) 632-9992, or by writing a letter addressed to USDA. The letter must contain the complainant's name, address, telephone number, and a written description of the alleged discriminatory action in sufficient detail to inform the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights (ASCR) about the nature and date of an alleged civil rights violation. The completed AD-3027 form or letter must be submitted to USDA by: mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, D.C. 20250-9410; or fax: (833) 256-1665 or (202) 690-7442; or email: Program.Intake@usda.gov. Frequently Asked Questions

Who is eligible for TEFAP?

Households with an income which does not exceed the income guidelines established by the federal government. (Refer to the "Income Guidelines" section.)

How do I apply?

Those eligible may register at the Kenai Peninsula Food Bank or: For TEFAP, a Salvation Army; For CSFP: A KPFB CSFP Partner Agency.

What do I need to bring?

Bring a form of identification and something you can use to carry the food bags/boxes home.

How often can I receive TEFAP or CSFP?

TEFAP and CSFP are available for pick up through KPFB once each calendar month. Recipients should register at only one distribution center. Recipients can change their distribution center by request.

Does TEFAP replace other food assistance?

No. TEFAP is provided in addition to the direct service emergency food boxes available at the Kenai Peninsula Food Bank. It does not replace SNAP assistance either.

Where can I get TEFAP?

TEFAP is available at the Kenai and Homer Salvation Armies and at the Kenai Peninsula Food Bank.

When can I get TEFAP at the food bank?

TEFAP commodities are distributed Monday through Friday, 12:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

USDA Distribution Programs

Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP) - Senior Boxes

The United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) commodities (canned & dry goods) may be received once per month based on the most recent Income Guidelines (130% of the poverty level for the elderly). Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP) may be picked up starting the 2nd Wednesday of each month. This is an age and income based program.

The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP)

The United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) commodities are distributed under The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP) solely for the benefit of household consumption to low income individuals and families. Depending on availability, foods may include canned fruits, vegetables, meats, milk, frozen goods, and dry goods, such as cereals, rice, pasta, potatoes, and nuts.

Area Served

The food bank serves the entire Kenai Peninsula, which is over 1,000,000 acres and has a far flung, diverse borough population of over 59,000 people. This includes over 40 communities and over 40 partner agencies.
